Hi,

Yes, since I understand that you will be using the tape in a password protected environment to support the class, it's the same as showing the video in class, or showing video clips in class, so we give our permission for this usage.

Thanks much for your asking!

Best Regards,

Dear Ms. Taflinger,

I appreciate your oral approval to stream the CNN "Applied Psychology: I/O Psychology" A Turner Learning & Brooks/Cole Presentation 1998. It will be streamed into PSY450 Industrial Psychology taught by Dr. Ned Silver for UNLV Distance Education. The site will be password protected and available only to registered students. The students will be purchasing the accompanying textbook.

If you have any other questions, please contact me at 702 895 0708.

Please reply to this email to verify our agreement.

Thank you for your quick cooperation with this matter.
